

Where is Shanghai's hydrogen-powered exhibition hall?

The phase one of an off-grid hydrogen-powered exhibition hall, a joint project by Shanghai International Automobile City and Tongji University, was unveiled in Shanghai's Jiading district on Thursday. [Photo provided to chinadaily.com.cn]

How big is the hydrogen exhibition hall?

The full-size exhibition hall, which is expected to be finished by the end of this year, will cover 500 square meters and display the knowledge of hydrogen energy and various applications of hydrogen in everyday life and production. Its main structure will be using air-supported membrane technology.

Can hydrogen power be used in urban construction?

“The project embodied a breakthrough from zero to one, and putting the exhibition hall on the ground is evidence of the safe use of hydrogen power,” Wu said in a video for the launching ceremony. Wu and his research team in recent years have been dedicated to the application of new energy in urban construction.
